

BAPTISM NOTES:

Fill in the blanks as we read through the Baptism sections of our Catechisms.

Introduction to Baptism

Main Idea:

God has given Baptism as a gift to His people. Through Baptism, by faith, God gives us the forgiveness of sins, new life, and salvation. In Baptism, God brings us into His family as His precious children.

The nature of Baptism

Main Idea:

In Baptism, God forgives our sins and makes us His children through water and His word.

The blessings of Baptism

Main Idea:

God promises wonderful gifts in Baptism: the Holy Spirit, the forgiveness of sins, and eternal life with Him in heaven.

The power of Baptism

Main Idea:

The Word of God gives Baptism the power to forgive sins, rescue from death and the devil, and give eternal life. We receive these gifts through Baptism by faith.

What does Baptism
indicate?

Main Idea:

As a baptized Christian, I confess my sins every day and live the new life that the Holy Spirit has created in me through Baptism.
